POLICY TITLE: ACCOUNTABILITY OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

POLICY REFERENCE NUMBER: BMD-2

The Chief Executive Officer is the only link to the operational achievements and conduct at the disposal of the Board. Consequently, all authority and accountability for staff is vested in the Chief Executive Officer.

1. The Board will never give instructions to persons who report directly or indirectly to the Chief Executive Officer.
2. The Board will not evaluate, either formally or informally, any staff other than the Chief Executive Officer.
3. The Board will review the performance of the Chief Executive Officer by reviewing the performance of the organization, so that the accomplishment of Ends Policies, and the adherence to the scope of Executive Limitations will be viewed as the successful job performance.
 - a. The Chief Executive Office is also expected to achieve those ends and adhere to those limitations while maintaining the highest level of professionalism and client services.
4. Board members may be invited by the Chief Executive Officer to be on operational/Chief Executive Officer committees, and thereby participating in organizational operations as volunteers under the authority of the Chief Executive Officer.

BMD-3: DELEGATION TO THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

POLICY TYPE: BOARD-MANAGEMENT DELEGATION POLICIES

POLICY TITLE: DELEGATION TO THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

POLICY REFERENCE NUMBER: BMD-3

Next Scheduled Revision: July 2018

The Board will communicate to the Chief Executive Officer its prescribed organizational ends to be achieved by means of Ends Policies and the proscribed means or actions by which they may be achieved using Executive Limitations Policies.

1. Ends Policies: The Board will develop policies instructing the Chief Executive Officer to achieve certain results, for certain segments of the membership or stakeholder community, using an amount of resources (financial or otherwise). Ends Policies are developed as increasingly specific ends derived from the most general mission statement. Any topic that is not considered an end is defined here as a mean.
2. Executive Limitations Policies: The Board will develop policies that limit the latitude that the Chief Executive Officer may exercise in choosing organizational means. These limiting policies will describe those practices, activities, decisions, and circumstances that would be unacceptable to the Board even if they were to be effective. These policies will be developed systematically from the broadest, most general level, to increasingly narrow, specific levels. The Board will never prescribe organizational means to the Chief Executive Officer. Therefore, all means are considered pre-approved by the Board unless explicitly prohibited by the Executive Limitations Policies.
3. As long as the Chief Executive Officer uses any reasonable interpretation of the Board's End Policies and Executive Limitations Policies, the Chief Executive Officer is authorized to establish all further policies, make all decisions, take all actions, establish all practices, and develop all activities. Any such action shall have the full force and authority as if decided by the Board.
4. The Board may change its Ends Policies and Executive Limitations Policies, thereby shifting the boundary between Board and Executive domains of authority and accountability. By doing so, the Board changes the latitude of choice accorded to the Chief Executive Officer. However, so long as any particular policy is in place, the Board and its members will respect and support the choices of the Chief Executive Officer.

BMD-4: MONITORING CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER PERFORMANCE

POLICY TYPE: BOARD-MANAGEMENT DELEGATION POLICIES

The criteria against which the performance of the Chief Executive Officer will be evaluated are the job products as contained in the Ends Policies, and whether those products were delivered in a manner consistent with the Executive Limitations Policies.

1. Monitoring, therefore, is an activity that determines the extent to which Board policies are being met. Any other activity is not considered monitoring. Any information that does not lend itself to this activity is not considered monitoring data.
2. The Board will acquire monitoring information by one or more of the two methods listed here:
 - a. Internal report – in which the Chief Executive Officer discloses interpretations and compliance information to the Board
 - b. External report – in which an external, disinterested third party selected by the Board assesses compliance with the Chief Executive Officers reasonable interpretation of Board policies
3. In every case, the Board will judge:
 - a. the reasonableness of the interpretation, and
 - b. whether or not the available data demonstrates compliance with the stated interpretation of Board policy.
4. The standard for compliance shall be any reasonable interpretation provided in the report. The Board, as a whole, is the final judge of reasonableness.
5. All policies that instruct the Chief Executive Officer will be monitored at a frequency and by a process chosen by the Board. The Board can monitor organizational compliance to any Board policy at any time by means of any of the three methods listed above. A schedule will be determined at the outset of every Board term.

6. Annually, the President and two Executive Board members shall evaluate the performance of the CEO on the basis of monitoring reports in order to provide a recommendation regarding the remuneration of the CEO.

GP-10: CONFLICT OF INTEREST GUIDELINES

POLICY TYPE: GOVERNANCE PROCESS POLICIES

POLICY TITLE: CONFLICT OF INTEREST GUIDELINES

POLICY REFERENCE NUMBER: GP-10

Adopted: April 15, 2016

Next Scheduled Revision: December 2018

Previous Revisions

This conflict of interest policy is designed to foster confidence in the integrity of Society and its Board of Directors, and to protect the interests of the Society when it is contemplating any decision, most notably, any decision that might benefit the private interest of a director, or their friends, family members, or associates. A parallel conflict of interest policy for staff is provided in the SFSS Operational Policies.

In general, a conflict of interest exists where directors or the Board of Directors use their position to benefit themselves, or their friends, family members, or associates. Directors need not feel themselves to be in conflict for a conflict to be present. It is sufficient that there appear to be a conflict.

DEFINITIONS

1. A conflict of interest exists when a director:
 - a. uses, or appears to use, their position to pursue or advance their personal interests, or those of a friend, family member, or associate, and
 - b. benefits or appears to benefit, directly or indirectly, from a Society transaction.

EXAMPLES

Conflicts of interest

- A director votes on a motion that aims to appoint a friend to a position as Chief Commissioner of the Independent Electoral Commission.
- The brother or cousin of a director is the manager of a web development firm that entered into an agreement for the provision of Web services to the Society, which the entire Board discussed and authorized.
- The Board accepts on behalf of the Society a donation from a company at which a director is employed.

Not conflicts of interest

- The nomination committee recommends the appointment of a friend of the nomination committee who meets all the evaluation criteria.
- Board approves a provision of service contract after a competitive process with a company owned by a family member of a director who has excused themselves from any discussion of the contract as well as any vote regarding it.
- Board approves financial support for a member driven initiative, where a few directors are casually acquainted with the member, but where neither the member nor the directors will financially benefit from the transaction, and where the proposal meets all proposal evaluation criteria.

GUIDELINES

2. Where a director feels that they are subject to a conflict of interest, they must:
 - a. disclose the conflict in writing to the President and Chief Executive Officer even if the director only becomes aware of that conflict after a transaction is complete,
 - b. excuse themselves from motioning, motivating, discussing, or voting on any issue giving rise to the conflict,
 - c. not discuss inside or outside of a Board meeting any decision giving rise to a conflict,
 - d. not seek to influence any decision pertaining to that conflict, and
 - e. immediately leave the meeting and not return until all discussion and voting with respect to the matter giving rise to the conflict is completed.
3. If a director is unsure whether a situation involves a conflict, the director must immediately seek the advice of the President and Chief Executive Officer,
4. Where a director feels that another Director is subject to a conflict of interest, they must:
 - a. disclose the conflict in writing to the President and Chief Executive Officer even if the director only becomes aware of that conflict after a transaction is complete,
 - b. request that the director in question excuse themselves from motioning, motivating, discussing, or voting on any issue giving rise to the conflict,
 - c. request that the director in question not discuss inside or outside of a Board meeting any decision giving rise to a conflict,
 - d. request that the director in question not seek to influence any decision pertaining to that conflict, and
 - e. request that the director in question immediately leave the meeting and not return until all discussion and voting with respect to the matter giving rise to the conflict is completed.
5. Board meeting minutes must:
 - a. contain a standing item requiring all directors to announce any conflict or possible conflict of interests,
 - i. note the content and parties to any declared conflict,

- b. contain a description of all declared conflicts, including the names of the directors involved, and
- c. reflect that involved directors left the meetings during which there is any discussion or voting with respect to the matter giving rise to the conflict.

BREACH OF CODE

6. Where a director is found to have breached their duty by violating this policy, that director may be:
 - a. asked to resign from their position by the Board,
 - b. censured by the Board, or
 - c. impeached.

WHERE TO SEEK CLARIFICATION

7. The President and the Chief Executive Officer will provide guidance on any item in this policy.
8. The President and Chief Executive Officer may, at their discretion, request that a director seek the advice of outside counsel.
