Vending Guidelines

A. The SFSS reserves the right to:
   o Limit the sale of similar merchandise to two vendors.
   o Restrict sales of goods that are already being provided to the student body by other SFSS or SFU services (such as food products).
   o Limit the total number of student vendors.

B. All goods and/or services to be sold and/or promoted must be disclosed at the time of booking. It is the vendor’s responsibility to notify the SFSS of any changes to merchandise or service prior to vending date. All changes are subject to approval by the SFSS, failure to do so can result in immediate cancellation of vending permit and no refund will be granted.

C. Vendors may not solicit business outside their designated area, or aggressively market to students. Failure to respect these guidelines are grounds for immediate cancellation of current and future vending permits.

D. Vendors must follow all University Policies while on-campus. This includes presenting only the products and services approved on the application form and only at the table assigned, not using amplified sound, staying behind the table(s) or in their Vendor space, and not following, shouting, or otherwise significantly disturbing students and employees while vending their products on campus.

E. Vendor permits will not be authorized for the sale, promotion, or advertisement of goods and/or services that promote violence, discrimination, or exploitation in their production process.

F. All merchandise and/or services must be legal as defined by provincial and federal laws and the vendor must have the legal right to sell and/or promote them.

G. All merchandise, promotional materials, and/or services must be presented in English or through a direct English translation from any foreign language.

H. Vendors are not allowed to sell any food items at the vending table.

I. Vendors are NOT allowed to sell cannabis and cannabis products, including health products and cosmetics.

J. Vendors may not loan or sell their table to another vendor.

K. Vendors must not bring their own table.

L. Vendors should not leave their equipment or products at the vending site overnight. Neither the SFSS nor the Simon Fraser University will be held responsible for any lost, stolen, damaged articles, money, equipment or merchandise.

SAFETY REGULATIONS

M. All items from daily sales must be removed from the table and surrounding space at the end of each day. No equipment shall be left in the vending area on weekends.

N. No tables shall be erected in front of any doorway, ramps, fire equipment, elevators, lockers, alarms, or vending machines.

O. Extension cords must be taped down for their entire length. Vendors must not use tape that will leave residue behind. Fire regulations prohibit open flames, such as candles.

P. In the event of inclement weather, please review the SFU Road Report website and the SFU social media pages for any campus closure.

VENDING FEES & REFUND

Q. Vending rates are subject to change without notice.

R. Application: Fees must be paid in full before scheduled the vending date. The SFSS will not reserve space without payment.

S. The vending fee includes one eight-foot table. A second table may be rented for a $5/day; however set-up must be contained within the 10 foot x 10 foot space in the 90 degree angle.

T. The vending fee will not be refunded if a vendor cancels within five business days of the scheduled vending date. An administration fee of 10% or $25 (whichever is less) will be applied to cancellation that is eligible for a vending fee refund.

U. If the University is closed due to weather or emergency situations on a date the Vendor is scheduled, the SFSS will work with the vendor to reschedule their reservation.
V. The vending fee varies depending on the type of business and merchandise and/or service being sold and/or promoted. The rates below include one 8 foot table (not including tax).
