7. DISCUSSION ITEMS

7.1 - SFU Sexual Assault Policy Campaign

- The first consultation will take place on October 11th.
- An email will go out to undergraduates to inform them of the place and time of the consultations.
- At this point the policy won't be available for consultation; however, SFU has mentioned that there will be an opportunity for students to share input in the policy.
- Prevention and support will be the main items to get feedback from the students. SFU will consider students' input for policy.
- The Advocacy committee plans to distribute calendar cards to students. It was recommended to add the following sentence to the calendar cards: "your voice matter".
- The committee plans to distribute whistles and lanyards with the SFSS logo.
- [Action item] Committee: Inquire if the Women's Centre would like to be a part of the whistles' order.
- Committee will inquire if Nesters would be interested in donating any refreshments during consultations.
- During consultations, the committee will have a banner with a removable sticker of the room number.

7.2 - Consent Campaign

- Update from the Chair – Consent toolboxes were well received by students. The consent toolboxes were left on the table instead of handing them out to students. Around 150 consent toolboxes were distributed to students.
- In addition, to distributing consent toolboxes during pub events, members suggested to also hand out other items that contain a consent message. These suggested items were cards, glow in the dark stickers, and coasters.
- It was also suggested to use a stamp that contains a consent message to stamp students when they are entering the pub.
- The committee will use the same consent toolboxes that are used at the Women's Centre and the Out on Campus departments.
- Committee members brought a list of potential slogans for the consent campaign; "Get your consent on" was the preferred slogan and will be sent to the Health and Counselling office.
