Terms of Reference Summary

The Simon Fraser Student Society Emergency Assistance Fund for Fraser International College was established in 2020 with a generous gift by the Simon Fraser Student Society. This fund was established to support FIC undergraduate students who face a sudden emergency situation have exhausted all other possible resources and for whom such financial hardship would affect their ability to complete their program of study.

The Simon Fraser Student Society Emergency Assistance Fund for Fraser International College

To be eligible to receive funding, the student is required to meet the following criteria:

- must be an enrolled at Fraser International College (FIC)]
- must have no outstanding financial balance with the institution.
- must be registered in full time courses during the semester in which you are applying for funds.
- must have achieved the minimum passing grade on all completed courses in the previous semester or have a combination of 80% attendance and a record of community engagement.
- Students may only receive one bursary in a twelve month period.

The funding value and number of bursaries available vary based on number of applications received and individual need. Not all bursaries are paid as cash and may be paid directly to a resource or service on behalf of the student. Students will also be referred to additional community support resources. Students receiving money from the SFSS fund will have the choice between receiving a cash payment or direct pay to a service provider.
